Garden Recognition Awards

GreenThumb will celebrate the 2nd Annual GreenThumb Garden Recognition Awards at the Harvest Fair on September 16. These awards will highlight the exceptional achievements of groups and community gardeners throughout the city who have done extraordinary things, bringing people together around local food and farming, healthy stewardship of open space and caring for the planet.

3rd Annual GreenThumb Fresh Chef Contest

Do you have what it takes to be GreenThumb’s Fresh Chef? Ten community members will create their most delicious and nutritious dish with local and healthy ingredients, and conclude with a panel of VIP Chefs crowning the new Fresh Chef! Prizes will be given to the winners. All participants will receive a chef hat and apron. Pre-registration is required at greenthumbnyc.org. Registration will close when the contest has reached capacity.
Do you think you’ve harvested an award winner?

Enter the Harvest Contest in any of the following categories: Vegetables, Flowers, Art from Nature, Culinary, and Children’s Categories (for youth 12 and under).

Share your Story with the Smithsonian

Cindy Nibbelink Worley and Haja Worley, GreenThumb community gardeners at Joseph Daniel Wilson Memorial Garden, Board Members of NYCCGC, author and WHCR Radio Host respectively; Sarita Daftary, Food Dignity Project; and GreenThumb

Bring your garden’s story, and we’ll help you shape, edit, refine, and submit to the Smithsonian’s ongoing Community of Gardens project. You can submit up to 2,000 words about your garden, as well as photos and audio. “By contributing images, videos, and stories to this website, your participation will help others to better understand the meaning and value of gardens to American life—today and in the future. Community of Gardens is the Smithsonian’s digital home for sharing and preserving the stories of gardens and the gardeners who make them grow.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Yorkers for Parks Daffodil Project Distribution

The Daffodil Project was founded in 2001 as a living memorial to September 11. With over 6.5 million free bulbs planted citywide by more than 100,000 young students, parks and gardening groups, civic organizations, corporate volunteers and other New Yorkers, it is one of the largest volunteer efforts in the city’s history.

Free daffodil bulbs can be requested from New Yorkers for Parks from Aug. 16 through Sept. 1, by visiting ny4p.org/daffodil-project or calling (212) 838-9410. Bulbs will be distributed throughout September and October at a range of locations—please visit ny4p.org/daffodil-project for the most up-to-date information.

For questions about the Daffodil Project, email ny4p@ny4p.org, or call (212) 838-9410.

Distribución de Narcisos de New Yorkers for Parks

El Proyecto de Narcisos fue fundado en el 2001 como un homenaje viviente acerca de Septiembre 11. Cerca de 6.5 millones de narcisos gratuitos sembrado en toda la ciudad por más de 100,000 estudiantes, grupos de jardines y parques, organizaciones cívicas, voluntarios de corporaciones, y otros neoyorquinos, este es uno de los esfuerzos de voluntarios más grande en la historia de la ciudad.

Los narcisos gratuitos pueden ser solicitados a New Yorkers for Parks desde Agosto 16 hasta Septiembre 1, al visitar ny4p.org/daffodil-project o llamar a (212) 838-9410. Los bulbos se distribuirán a lo largo de septiembre y octubre en una variedad de ubicaciones. Visite ny4p.org/daffodil-project para obtener la información más actualizada.

Para más preguntas acerca del Proyecto de Narcisos, envíe un correo a ny4p@ny4p.org, o llame a (212) 838-9410.

Applications Open for Uprooting Racism with Soul Fire Farm

Save the date:
Saturday, Jan. 27, 2018 / 10:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

Uprooting Racism will be a theory and action training for community garden leaders to uproot systemic racism. We will delve deep into the history of our community gardens and examine our personal and collective roles as stewards of the land and as facilitators. Much of the time will be spent developing tangible action plans for uprooting these oppressions within our own gardens. Preference for this training will be given to registered GreenThumb community gardeners.

Facilitated by Leah Penniman, Soul Fire Farm.

For more information and to apply, please visit bit.ly/GTuprootingracism. We encourage you to attend one or both “Gardening for Liberation” social justice roundtables in November to prepare for and supplement this training.

Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. November 15th.

Solicitudes Abiertas para el Entrenamiento “Arrancar de Raíz el Racismo” con la Granja Soul Fire

Marca esta fecha en tu calendario Sábado, Enero 27, 2018 / 10:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

Arrancar de Raíz el Racismo será un entrenamiento teórico e interactivo para líderes de jardines comunitarios para arrancar de raíz el racismo sistemático. Profundizaremos en la historia de nuestros jardines comunitarios y examinaremos nuestros roles personales y colectivos como facilitadores y cuidadores de la tierra. La mayor parte del tiempo será dedicado a desenvolver planes de acción tangibles para arrancar de raíz estas opresiones dentro de nuestros jardines. La preferencia para este entrenamiento será para los jardineros comunitarios de GreenThumb.

Facilitado por Leah Penniman, Soul Fire Farm.

Para más información y para aplicar, por favor visite bit.ly/GTuprootingracism. Los invitamos a participar en una o ambas mesas redondas de discusión “Gardening for Liberation” acerca de la justicia social en Noviembre para prepararse y complementar este entrenamiento.

Las aplicaciones deben ser enviadas antes de Noviembre 15 a las 5:00 p.m.
